

March Prayer Calendar

March 6

Lincoln Southern Heights

Rev. Leanne Masters

Southern Heights Presbyterian Church lifts up joy and thanksgiving to God for the great blessings of our church family and the opportunity to spread God's light into the community and the world. May God's love and grace continue to guide us and help us grow.

March 13

Lincoln Westminster

Rev. Andrew McDonald

Lincoln Westminster asks for prayers for our new Sudanese worship service which meets on Sundays at noon and for our church as we enter our 111th year.

March 20

Lyons

Rev. Heidi Wallace

We give thanks for the partnership of First Presbyterian and Bethany Lutheran, both in Lyons. As we journey through Lent, we do so together, alternating midweek worship services between the two congregations. We are thankful for all those who serve our communities, especially as we remember the life of one who served this community as a cook, an employer, and a model of generosity and patience. We continue to pray for those who have ongoing medical tests and treatments, keeping close those who have experienced recent setbacks.

March 27

Nebraska City

Rev. Greg Bolt

At First Presbyterian Church in Nebraska City we will be, "Planting Seeds of God's Light." As we are, may God always be with us. We will be: Striving to reflect the light of Christ, we seek to plant new seeds envisioning a harvest of God's fruits of faith, hope, and love. Our passionate, loving, and faithful members reach out, nurturing an environment recognizing everyone's God-given gifts and skills. We create an atmosphere of trust by valuing diversity and openness, accepting and welcoming all as beloved children of God. Illuminated by the Holy Spirit, we serve by providing for the needs of those outside our walls, supporting and ministering to those within our walls, and taking action exhibiting the kingdom of God together with our neighbors.
