FRIENDS SEW "LITTLE DRESSES FOR AFRICA"

Auburn First Presbyterian Church is participating in this nondenominational Christian mission that was founded by Rachel O'Neil to provide simple dresses for orphans and school children in Africa. At least 560,000 dresses have been distributed to 31 countries in Africa. They also have sent dresses to countries in crisis, when requested, such as Honduras, Guatemala, Philippines, Cambodia, Mexico and thousands to Haiti. In addition they have also sent dresses to children in need right here in the United States, in the Appalachian Mountains and South Dakota.

Commercially produced clothing is not acceptable, as customs regulations for those items make import fees prohibitive. People from all over the United States, as well as Australia, Canada and the UK, join together to make little dresses out of simple patterns. Some people sew; some people donate; some people go to Africa.

"Friends in Fellowship" is the women's organization of Auburn's church, comprised of about ten regular members and occasional guests. They meet for a brown bag supper, fellowship and Bible study once a month in the Church Fellowship hall. They were looking for a worthwhile project when they heard Little Dresses For Africa's (LDFA) mission statement - "To plant in the hearts of little girls that they're worthy!" The project was explained to the congregation during several worship services and gained the support of many.

"Friends'" goal is to send at least 50 dresses to Brownstown MI where they arrange for distribution by mission teams or mail the dresses. Sewing nights bring the group together for a common mission as well as fellowship, but others in the Church have made dresses at home to donate or have donated supplies. The patterns are very simple and can be made with a yard of material, elastic and bias-tape, plus any decorative touches the sewer might add!

One of LDFA's major needs is the vacuum space bags that they pack the dresses in for shipping - they need the small and medium sizes for easy distribution. Boxes cost around $40 and hold approximately 100 dresses which are sent to mission teams to distribute when they travel. Boxes cost approximately $130 to ship internationally. It is through generous donations that Little Dresses for Africa is

A PASTOR'S BUSINESS CARD

A new pastor was visiting in the homes of his parishioners. At one house it seemed obvious that someone was at home, but no answer came to his repeated knocks at the door. Therefore, he took out a business card and wrote 'Revelation 3:20' on the back of it and stuck it in the door.

When the offering was processed the following Sunday, he found that his card had been returned. Added to it was this cryptic message, 'Genesis 3:10'. Reaching for his Bible to check out the citation, he broke up in gales of laughter. Revelation 3:20 begins 'Behold, I stand at the door and knock.' Genesis 3:10 reads, 'I heard your voice in the garden and I was afraid for I was naked.'
